CDA has been involved with the Quatermile urban regeneration project since 2004 and has completed seven 'B' listed Victorian building conversions. Each building has been sensitively and completely restored as part of the conversion works, and in some cases partly re-built, to create a range of apartment types from studios to four bedroom duplex properties some with mezzanine levels.

The most recent buildings, the Lofts, created 41 studio / one bed apartments along with four commercial units overlooking Lister Square.
